Hello Adam,

Reservation: MWSCZD

City Pairs: Detroit, MI - Halifax, NS - London (Gatwick), United Kingdom

Thank you for submitting a claim under the Air Passenger Protection Regulations (APPR).

A review of your claim for compensation pursuant to the APPR has been completed taking the flight itinerary into consideration, which includes the original departure city to the final destination.

Upon review of your reservation, we are unable to approve the claim for compensation as the most significant reason for the flight interruption was due to an unexpected maintenance delay on the original aircraft, the flight was switched to a new aircraft to ensure it could continue operating and was required for safety purposes.

Situations surrounding flight disruptions can be complex and have multiple causes. This reason may change as the situation evolves, new issues arise, or new information is received.

Additional information regarding the APPR can be found using the following links:

We appreciate your understanding and the opportunity to review your claim.

Regards,
